CONTRACT ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY
DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA, COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

The Department of Psychology in the College of Liberal Arts at the University of Minnesota invites applications for a full-time, contract faculty position in Counseling Psychology beginning Fall 2016. Appointment will be at the rank of Contract Assistant Professor.

The initial term of this appointment is academic year 2016/17, beginning August 29, 2016 and concluding May 28, 2017. The appointment is for a fixed one-year term.

REQUIRED/PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS
Candidates must have completed the requirements for the Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology or a related field by the appointment date. Essential Qualifications are demonstrated scholarly excellence and successful teaching experience.

Candidates will be evaluated according to the overall quality of academic preparation and professional experience, evidence of commitment to teaching and skills as a teacher, and strength of recommendations.

DUTIES/RESPONSIBILITIES
Contract faculty in the Department of Psychology in the College of Liberal Arts are expected to develop and teach undergraduate and graduate courses; advise students; contribute service appropriate for the rank of appointment; and maintain an active program of scholarly research.

Teaching responsibilities across 9 months will consist of 5 graduate and/or undergraduate courses in our core curriculum. Undergraduate courses could include Counseling Psychology, which is a large enrollment course, Psychology of Stress and Trauma, Introduction to Cultural Psychology, Vocational and Occupational Health Psychology or Psychology of Women and Gender. Graduate teaching might include Counseling Psychology History and Theories, Interviewing and Intervention, Developmental Psychology, Supervision and Advanced Practicum with the in-house Career Counseling and Assessment Clinic. Specific courses will be determined in consultation with the Counseling Psychology faculty and the Department of Psychology. Course assignments will depend on qualifications.

Successful applicants will also be expected to contribute to the service needs of the Department, College, and University. The resources of a major research and graduate training department and its faculty are available to support faculty members’ work.

PROGRAM/UNIT DESCRIPTION
The Department of Psychology at the University of Minnesota consists of approximately 43-core faculty, 1,400 undergraduate majors, and 160 graduate students. The Department offers advanced training in a broad spectrum of strong programs in both basic and applied fields, including:

- Biological Psychopathology
- Clinical Science and Psychopathology Research
- Cognitive and Brain Sciences
- Counseling Psychology
- Industrial/Organizational Psychology
- Personality, Individual Differences, and Behavioral Genetics
- Quantitative/Psychometric Methods
- Social Psychology
The Department is housed within the College of Liberal Arts and has active collaborations with faculty throughout the University, including those in Neuroscience, Psychiatry, Educational Psychology, Child Development, Human Resources and Industrial Relations, Radiology, and Human Genetics. The Department has modern research and office space in Elliott Hall, and faculty, research associates, and graduate students have access to state-of-the-art university research facilities in neural imaging, genomics, and supercomputing.

For additional information, please visit the Department of Psychology website, at http://www.psych.umn.edu/about/

Established in 1868, the College of Liberal Arts supports the University of Minnesota’s land-grant mission as home to disciplines in the arts, humanities, and social sciences. The College of Liberal Arts values diverse cultures, experiences, and perspectives as key to innovation and excellent education: http://www.cla.umn.edu/

The University of Minnesota shall provide equal access to and opportunity in its programs, facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, gender, age, marital status, disability, public assistance status, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression http://www.umn.edu/

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS
Please apply online via the Employment System at:

http://www1.umn.edu/ohr/employment

• Click on External Applicants on left hand side under Search & Apply
• Enter Posting ID 306376 in the Keywords box
• The position for Contract Assistant Professor will populate
• Click Apply to apply for position

Applications must be submitted online. To be considered for this position, please click on "APPLY FOR THIS POSTING" and follow the instructions. You will have an opportunity to complete an online application for the position and attach materials related to your candidacy, including 1) Cover Letter/Statement of Intent 2) Curriculum Vitae; 3) Statement of Teaching Philosophy and Experience 4) Statement of Research.

In addition to the material submitted electronically, applicants must provide three letters of references to be sent directly from the reference to the search committee at Psyappt@umn.edu

ALL APPLICATION MATERIALS NEED TO BE SUBMITTED BY February 1st. The position will remain open until filled.

The Search Committee will begin reviewing applications on February 15, 2016. The position will remain open until filled.

The University of Minnesota is an equal opportunity educator and employer.